GAME #3

Vs

MAY 13, 2023 | vs EAST GOSFORD | ALAN DAVIDSON OVAL

One good thing about the new draw after re-grading was the increase in home games… and today's bonus away game at home against the Rams, albeit Field 2. Out for this fixture were Ashton and Jamesy, the latter too busy soaking up the sunshine in Noosa; Meady was working but aspired to play the second half (that didn't happen); Largey was suffering from adductor issues … and Luca was in doubt with a severe case of hurt feelings. Our favourite Italian, still with the 2019 draw on his fridge, was a bit too slow on the whatsapp updates to realise there'd been a fixture and time change. But his worst realisation was that he was starting from the bench! Chu due palle!!! This was the last straw. Distraught that this hadn't happened to him in 25 years, he soon found the shoulder of a committee member of the highest echelon to cry on. Manager Andy was soon receiving a call from the Wyoming FC Club President asking if anything could be done to stop the tears of this sulking, grey-haired man. It was too late. That line-up app takes forever to finalise. You have to wait over thirty seconds in advertisements before it's done! No way was he going through that twice in a day. The best that could be done was give Luca a bag of red frogs and tell him the location had been changed to Doyalson.

Rob made a welcome return to the gloves. During the warm-up, he was told he was the only remaining player in the team to not have played a part in a goal, either for us, or the opposition. A long kick to Garvs early in the game, looked like this anomaly was going to be remedied but Rob's chances of an assist were thwarted when, after all of Garvs' zigging and zagging, his shot when straight to the opposition keeper. Sorry Rob. If Garvs had've passed it to the open Mikey D across the goalmouth, well it would've probably been a goal but then Rob would merely get an assist to an assist, and well that doesn't count now does it.

Garvs did send it to Mikey D in another attacking run soon after. Mikey D's shot veered awfully close to the right goal post but no, that was hit instead by the head of the East Gosford goalkeeper instead as he tried to stop it. Ouch! Thankfully he was okay. To no surprise to any of us Tigers, Mikey D's shot had found the net, but for his former East Gosford teammates, there was disbelief … "you never scored when you played for us!".

Fresh from his star performance last week, Tooley was at it again moving around the middle of the park creating options. His best effort was a through ball to Garvs who promptly made it 2-0.

Fresh from his own goal last week, Wallace was at it again. Late in the first half, the referee pointed to the spot for a Rams penalty. Most of us were convinced it was a from a Wal handball inside the box but turned out the incident was just before that, a foul from Stitty. Stitty, we can't stay mad at you. Rob did his best to slow down proceedings, questioning if the ball was centered correctly. When the dot shot was taken, Rob dived in the right direction, left in this case, but it did not matter, the ball veered wide. Two minutes later, Wal handballed it again, but this was outside the box. The ensuing free kick did not cause Rob any stress. At halftime, schoolteacher Garvs gave Wal a quick briefing on where not to touch the ball. Really needed a whiteboard.

There'd been a bit too much backchat for the referee's liking that he called the captains together at the end of those first forty minutes declaring sin binning for any further insolence. A few minutes into the second half there was concern Luca was going to be the first, but he wasn't going off at the Ref, just Boz for being benched at the start of the game. Okay, that joke has died now. Luca's tenacity continued today though unfortunately that mane of beautiful long grey hair did come out this week with no meddling Neale McAndrew to tinker with his hairband from the sideline. Andy looks to have finally overcome his ankle gripes with several runs up the left flank, combining with Mikey D a few times but it was a cross to Garvs that led to the third goal. Garvs switched it across to Mikey D who squeezed a shot inside the right post again. That capped off the goal scoring for today. Probably should've been more. Popular amongst the MVP votes today were Dean, who worked tirelessly in the middle through the traffic; Chad and Clive working well on the right flank; and Dylan, whose defence and direction from the backline thwarted many attacking options from the Rams. His presence was sorely missed in the second half after he had to leave the field with a broken collarbone. Hoping you make a quick recovery mate, and we'll see you back out there before the end of the season.
