GAME #7

Vs

17 JUNE 2023 | vs KILLARNEY DISTRICT | ALAN DAVIDSON OVAL 1

Seventeen of the squad were available for this top of the table clash against Killarney so the question on Friday evening was who would miss out? Both Boz and Mikey D had offered to miss out. Boz was still struggling with back issues from the weight of that heavy head telling everyone he scored a goal last weekend whilst Mikey D had signed up for the Bay to Bay 12km run on the Sunday so was happy to rest his legs. Who would miss out? … Neither! Chad was a late withdrawal due to a sick child. As he sent through his apologies, he wished the team luck but asked for one favour… please don't let Boz score again. I'm so sorry Chad, we let you down…

This was the second time we battled Killarney this season but that 5-1 victory had been struck from the record due to that re-draw. One particular memory from that game was how strong Killarney had started and that was no different today. In fact, we could've easily trailed a goal early if not for the heroic, cat-like reflexes of Rob who made another of his trademark saves. Brilliant! It was no surprise he was in the mix for MVP today.

At the other end, Largey looked certain to put away his first goal of the season. Garvs had raced up along the sideline and then across the goal line, cutting it back to Largey who swiftly put it away. Unfortunately, the young sideline official was tricked by the Killarney backline who had fibbed that the ball had gone out. It had not. These tricks would ensue for the rest of the half, appeals often made from a particular individual, often when a teammate was two meters behind him. Poor Ashton also copped one of these, making a run up the left flank. He had at least three Killarney players ahead of him yet was called offside.

Frustration was brewing to the point of squabbling within the team but thankfully this simmered when we finally got on the board. Dean was responsible for the type of assist where one passes it to Garvs from the halfway line, takes a seat, has a cup of coffee or tea, all the while watching as Garvs weaves through half the opposition and finds the net about five minutes later.

As happens a lot this season, the second goal came quickly, a double tap if you will, and umm, Chad … maybe skip this paragraph. From the corner kick, Largey and Garvs combined on the left edge. Garvs sent it across the goalmouth high where Boz, watching a bird in a tree, was oblivious as the ball hit the back of his head and bounced into the net. Boz was confused when everyone was yelling 'falcon' as that was not the type of bird he was watching… Okay fine, Boz, loitering on the edge of the 6-yard box, headed it beautifully into the top left corner of the net. As soon as it happened, Andy promptly turned off the notifications on Whatsapp knowing what trolling would ensue. The 3-2-1 votes at the end of the game did not help either!!

The start of the second half echoed the start of the first, a grind. The boys had to fend off quite a few corner kick threats but the likes of Boz, Nige and Stitty cleared those away with some solid defence. Stitty is hoping we get some stats going for defensive blocks, so if anyone can start a tally sheet and monitor this please do. Also, assists of assists has been a popular request, particularly by Stingmore. For the third goal, Wal picked up that honour, flicking it onto Luca. Luca, on 29 goal assists, watched on nervously after sending Garvs through .. but Garvs' shot hit a Killarney player on its way through. Was it an own goal? Garvs claimed otherwise stating it was already going in, so congrats Luca, 30 Goal Assists!!

The fourth and final goal saw a lazy tackle on Garvs inside the box. Whilst Garvs was having trouble working out which was the right hole for the dot shot, Meady advanced forward offering to take it instead, confident he knew which hole to use. Sorry Nige but there was no denying Garvs on his hattrick. He found the hole, and the net. 4-0! Not the score Killarney deserved for their efforts today, but we'll take it.

There were several other goal opportunities: Andy had a great chance to put one away after Garvs cut it back but alas his shot veered just wide of the right post; Stitty had a stitt, I mean stint, up front. Combining with a series of one-twos with Tooley, it looked like Stitty was lining it up for a shot but instead flicked it back to Tooley now surrounded in traffic "You take it! No, you take it!"; and finally, Rob was on his way to the halfway mark before deciding it was probably wise to release the ball by now. He sent a long ball into Mikey D's path. Could Rob finally get on the Goal Assist list? Mikey D certainly menaced his way through but sadly couldn't get that killer shot away. But hey at least he was onside this time. There is some concern the Bay to Bay Run tomorrow may have several false starts if he's in the front line. In wrapping up, I'd like to quote Luca's comment… "What a team and what a game! This team has something special, I think. Yes, we are not perfect and yet the ability to go through some tough periods of times, during games and suffer, struggle and scrap ourselves out of it, is quite remarkable". Hear, hear!
