GAME #3

Vs

APRIL 24, 2021 | vs TOUKLEY | HARRY MOORE OVAL 1

"A very aggressive lineup, I like it" wrote Fitzy when the line-up was announced. "In for the early goal boys!". Those words almost rang true as we hit the ground running and almost scored within the first couple of minutes. There were many chances as McGarvey sent the defensive line in a dizzy spin but it would be his cross that would put Wyoming on the board rather than a shot. Andy was there to take advantage with a tap over the keeper. Plenty more attacking chances ensued. McGarvey and Ashton in particular threatening with a couple of shots each. Toukley were rarely reaching our 18-yard box thanks to a busy midfield consisting of O'Connor, Mashman and McAndrew. When they did breach, Boz and Brad were there to give keeper Rob a quiet day at the office. Other than being at the receiving end of an ankle stomping and choosing the wrong way to dive in a penalty, he did not have much to do. Yes, a penalty. The notoriously tardy Paudel had just come onto the field - his first game of the season - and in his second interaction with the ball had sent an attacker tumbling inside the box. It was soon 1-1 where it should have been about 6-0. Not to worry, McGarvey soon found himself being tripped at the other end. Andy opted to take the throw-in (making Ngari nervous of their bank account if he got fined) and sent McGarvey on his way. The ref was soon pointing to the spot. McGarvey calmly put it away to send us back in the lead, just before half time. Someone commented that there was only a minute remaining but that turned out to be plenty of time to get another one. O'Connor won the ball just over the halfway line. He sent it to Andy in space who tapped inside to Paul who sent it across. Stew got a touch to it and McGarvey on the receiving end picked up his brace. A real kick in the guts for Toukley no doubt.

During the break, McAndrew had a bit of back treatment from Julia's magic hands. Whatever she did, he was soon reminding this scribe of ensuing goal assists. He put McGarvey through for his hatrick and whilst his pass to McGarvey was intercepted by a Toukley player and won back by McGarvey, we will give him another. Mashman almost claimed that goal for himself as he slid inside the goalmouth narrowly missing Mick's acute shot from the right goalpost. Nobody was denying him his fourth goal of the afternoon. McAndrew was involved again for the team's sixth goal. O'Connor had made a charging run. Neale asked for the ball promising OC would get it back. Well eventually. It went to Andy first who then knocked it OC's way as he neared the defensive line. He pushed on past them and slotted it away. Much to Boz's chagrin, Andy had claimed his first assist of the year. Upon taking a break, he noticed Paul was still on the sideline. Andy promptly called McGarvey off and Ashton took to the field. Within minutes, O'Connor was bolting down the left flank and crossed the ball into Ashton's path. Ashton timed it beautifully to make it 7-1. Andy wanted to claim an assist for this due to some super-subbing but didn't want to risk Boz and Amy fining him. Stew, who was behind Ashton in that play, was lucky it didn't reach him as he was well offside. Stew did get a cracking shot away though not long after and had another chance in the goalmouth but was penalized with a handball. His trademark "Urghhhhh" echoed all the way to Lake Munmorah. Speaking of "Maradonas", Mashman too found his hand connecting with the ball on the bounce during his charging run up the midfield. His shot went wide anyway. Rob was lamenting that Stew and Mashman had touched the ball more than he had. He did get to watch the eagles nesting in the light post though. Andy could've bagged a brace when Fitzzy put through a quality ball, but his shot curled away from the near post. O'Connor showed him how it was done. Voted player's player at game's end, he had an outstanding game and was relentless. It was fitting that OC put away the 8th and final goal courtesy of a perfect through ball by Ashton. Thankfully no injuries today despite Boz involved in some heavy collisions and Brad copping a bruised ankle in a 50/50 challenge. A solid effort today but we cannot get carried away with the big win as we take on competition leaders Ourimbah next week.

On a dour note, Michal Karas will not be returning this season having ruptured his ACL in the game against the Entrance. We wish him all the best in his recovery and hope this does not mean he'll hang up the boots in future seasons. Regardless, take care mate, we are all here for you.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

Ourimbah made it 3 from 3 with their 4-2 victory over Gwandalan. Killarney and The Entrance played a 7-goal thriller with Killarney bagging the 3pts. Wyong smashed Woongarra 9-2 and Kanwal narrowly defeated Mountains.

ROUND FOUR...

It doesn't get any easier for Gwandalan or Mountains this weekend as they take on undefeated Wyong and Killarney respectively. Toukley and The Entrance battle each other again (they played in Round 2) in a CCF draw blunder (it has since been rectified and they will not be playing a third time as originally planned). Woongarra take on neighbours Kanwal. The game of the round: 1st placed Ourimbah vs 2nd placed Wyoming.
