The final game to round out the halfway mark of the season. After the first round draw against the Entrance, we had gone on to defeat seven of the other teams, and now just the Wildcats stood in our way to maintain this undefeated run. They picked up their first win of the season last week so we weren't about to relax, Boz would not let us anyway! Brad and Paul remained on the injury list, Scott was helping the A's, and Jay was a late scratching. Cliff was still ailing from his shoulder but ready to help and even brought some "dirty bird" KFC pre-game. He did not offer any to Andy who was still struggling from a mid-week bout of gastro. Boz wanted Andy to wear a mask and warm up with the opposition.

Boz seemingly had his first goal assist of the season when his free kick found McGarvey who tapped it into the net ... but then someone cried foul claiming McG had shoved his way through. "Come on, it's thirty-fives" countered McG. We are still not sure if it was his fault or that the ref had a gripe against Boz for disobeying his instructions prior to kick off. Having seen Julia strapping Boz's ankles, the ref had requested another strip of tape over Boz's gob. Having had a goal denied, McG couldn't even get an assist on the board when he passed it through to a charging Andy who stuffed it up with a right-footed attempt that veered more towards the sideline than goal-line; O'Connor gave former boss Elton a good chance when he curled it across only for Elton's shot to go directly to the keeper; and Fitzy threatened with a high ball that couldn't quite combine with a Tigers head. It was a quality through ball from Neale that finally broke the deadlock. McGarvey charged forward and coolly slotted it past the keeper to give us a narrow lead into the break.

It took some time to put the game in doubt in Wyoming's favour, but when it happened it was a quick one-two punch that left the Wildcats fuming. The first came from a corner. Neale ran it in towards the box. His cross was blocked by an opposition defender who inadvertently used his hand to run it out. McGarvey punished them with the penalty kick. McGarvey was in the thick of it shortly afterwards when he challenged the backline. Stew inherited the ball, passed it to Tim Cohen who flicked it through the middle where Andy narrowly beat the keeper to make it 3-0. Frustrated, the Wildcats became a bit erm, wild, in the ensuing minutes. Luca went off with a sore knee; Mashman copped a stomp to the foot, and Milham needed a moment after going hell for leather in one play. Boz challenged hard as usual but received no threats for carpark rendezvous this week. All in all, another solid effort from the boys to make it eight straight. Those pesky Ourimbah Falcons though defeated Killarney to remain only one point behind us.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

Killarney's loss to Ourimbah sees them drop five points from 2nd place now whilst The Entrance's shock loss to Gwandalan (their first win of the year) sees them now five points adrift of the Top 4. Toukley leaptfrogged the Mountains into 7th with their second win of the year.

ROUND TEN ...

Not the flip side of Round One at all due to a strange CCF draw system. The big game is Killarney vs Wyong whilst Kanwal hosts The Entrance.
