WEEK 18 (ROUND 9)

THE BATTLE OF THE YELLOW SOCKS

Well we may have worn similar socks as our opposition last weekend but at least we were back to our usual shirts so the brave crowd could identify who was Wyoming in the miserably cold, windy conditions of the sandpit that is Umina. Great to have Framey back on the field, we all missed you mate ... Was an interesting game - Darren and Elton had epiphanies on how they're to score goals: Darren needs to just keep going till her reaches net whilst Elton needs to be on the run and shoot at an acute angle - right in front just wont cut it - just kidding guys :); Adam and Meady showed us all how to do commando rolls whilst retrieving the ball under the fence netting ; Kev proved his voice could overpower the wind when he yelled "get back midfielders!" one or twenty times; Meady picked the right referree to get away with a blanant hand ball in the penalty area; Gregg unleashed the winger within; and the children watching learnt a few new words from a Umina player whilst being sent off!

MINOR PREMIERSHIP - GONE WITH THE WIND !!

Well not quite. Even if we had've won on the windy weekend, Mountains ensured they were out of our reach with a 2-0 victory over Kariong. They have now won 11 in a row. Hoping they're all supersititious and lose on their attempt for '13' (the grand final). Woy Woy wrapped up 3rd place with 27pts and will be our opponents in the semi final.

THE BATTLE FOR 4TH

East Gosford lost 1-2 to Woy Woy and take them on again this weekend. They sit at 5th place on 22pts. They need to win this weekend as Southern Ettalong - who take on Terrigal in a double header this weekend (theirs was washed out last Saturday) - could join them on 25pts if they win both. If that all happens it would go on goal differentials between the two. This will all be in vain if Kariong defeats Wyoming this weekend as they'll jump to 26pts and wrap up 4th spot ... but let's be honest -- THAT'S NOT GONNA HAPPEN!! We may find ourselves with quite a few blue / green & white supporters on the sideline this Saturday afternoon!!

THIS WEEKEND

Just read that our last game of the regular season will be without Mick and Jason, hope you guys recover soon for the finals, we need you back!! Good to see the ankle is okay Finchy to have you still in the line-up. Cya Thursday / Saturday !!
