

WYOMING 35ES CHRONICLES

18th August 2012

WEEK 19 (ROUND 11)

THE FINAL ROUND

The 35ES trilogy at Alan Davidson saw finals hopefuls East Gosford (defeating Woy Woy 1-0) and Southern Ettalong (defeating Terrigal 1-0) doing their bit to keep their chances alive only to witness Wyoming falling in the dying seconds to Kariong. Southern Ettalong in particular, tried to urge Wyoming on. Their consistent yelling from the sidelines to keep the ball away from our own net obviously wasn't enough to stop a determined Kariong steal 4th spot from their grasps. Ettalong played Terrigal again the next day but the 1-3 deficit most probably would have been a different result if they were still in with a chance.

HUSTLING TACTICS ??

A fall from grace or cunning tactics to make it merely appear Wyoming have flown under the radar for the final series? In the past four games with 1 win, 2 draws and a loss to end the final round, the other final contenders may be fooled into thinking we peaked too soon. Those who saw the game last weekend witnessed a team that hasn't worn its full playing strip in the past three games (though this time we did at least have shirts labelled 'Wyoming - albeit under 12 sizes); a team that had all of its players out of their usual field position; and a team where the substitute coach conspires with the team's leading goalscorer to keep the player one goal behind away from the net!! Bastards!!! ... Our battle to reclaim the 'Best Team' title starts this weekend against Woy Woy. We welcome back the tenacious battler Jason Cottier and evil conspirator Mick Kennedy whom may inspire the old 'kick it to Michael' coaching tactics to return. Hoping you both have said goodbye to the injuries you've been plagued with all season !!

WYOMING vs KARIONG HIGHLIGHTS

- Ronnie's header at goal

- Tony's return to goalkeeper since the Under 6s.
- The merry-go-round foul throwing contest.
- Framey urging benchwarmers Kev & Meady to reclaim their fullback positions only for them to point to the front and say "nope, we're going up there!" ... and the heckling that ensued upon each of their missed chances at goal.
