GAME #5 - EAST GOSFORD 1 (LOST 0-3)

The football gods were not in the favour of the mighty yellows with players missing, an injury ravaged bench, and some unfortunate decisions going against us. A controversial penalty at the end of the first half and a goal at the death flattered the home side but nevertheless Wyoming were far from their best.

CONDOLENCES

The players observed a minute silence to commemorate the recent passing of Paul's mother. On behalf of the team and their families, my sincere condolences to Paul and his family for their loss.

INJURIES

The injury curse continues. Chris was off early due to a recurring ankle injury whilst Mark limped his way around the field after picking up a knot in his calf during the warm-up. Thankfully Tony was able to overcome his ongoing 'heartlige' complaints to remain on the field. Get well soon guys.

IN THE GOALMOUTH OF MADNESS

Wyoming were slow to wake up in the first half leaving Aaron - the standout player for this game - under early pressure from a barrage of East Gosford attack. Despite the domination of the greens however, it looked like Wyoming had found the net first when Tony took a great cross from Paul and beat the keeper from out wide. Unfortunately the goal was disallowed due to an offside ruling. A dubious decision considering how long it took for the ref to blow his whistle - Tony had originally miss kicked it before chasing onto it. The worst call though came at the other end when Gregg was shielding the ball as it entered the penalty area. An opposition player's head clashed with the back of his and the ref ruled a penalty!

CARD ENVY

The frustration of these and other decisions got many in the team fuming but none so much as Meady. When it's reached the point that Tony is telling someone to calm down, you know you're in trouble. In his defence, Meady expressed to Tony the confusion of not being used to playing against 12 men. The ref's sight may have been impaired due to old age but unfortunately his hearing has not. He instructed Meady to advance. ... "No, you come here!" Meady replied. Surprised he only received a yellow card for this subordination, Meady added "you can't even get that right!". He somehow remained on the field. Kev - getting a bit anxious that a few teammates have now acquired such infringements - picked up one - a late tackle - to advance to the top of the 'Yellow Card' leader board on '2'. Thankfully a "calm down" talk by Tony at half time - a moment he most certainly relished - inspired no further incidents in the second half.

PLAYER SHORTAGE

Next weekend is looking like another tough one to fill the numbers with injuries and absences. One of these is Steve George away for another week due to a cruise - this seems to be becoming a common excuse not to play. Nathan may have escaped suspension from a heavy tackle that Tony deemed was worthy of a red card but nevertheless will also be absent next weekend due being called upon by ASADA for an interview. Nate was seen taking a performance-enhancing red frog lolly whilst on the sideline in the second half. Fingers crossed that not only does he return the weekend after but that we can field a full team this weekend - come back Framey!!!!
