GAME #7 - VS GOSFORD (LOST 1-2)

Another disappointing day for Wyoming 35DS. Conceding an early goal from a soft free kick was merely the beginning of a day fuelled with frustration. A series of poor offside calls from a novice linesman in the first half left Wyoming with it all to do in the second half. An equaliser inspired hope but flaring tempers, yellow cards - one red - and ultimately a sheer lack of luck for the Tigers saw Gosford steal the win with only minutes remaining. Sadly the slump for Wyoming continues but we remain in the Top 4 and as the second half of the season approaches so too does the great news that our missing troops are set to return in the coming weeks.

STRANGE SIGHTS

There was a bizarre sight to behold during the warm-up. I'm not referring to Dave seen without his headgear or Paul kicking a ball amongst his teammates with the great news that he could be back as early next week. No, it had to do with regular keeper Aaron wearing a yellow Tigers jersey, and the man who was putting on the gloves in his place ... Nigel Mead !! I'm not sure if it was a safety precaution as Nigel continues to struggle with sore knee syndrome - then again is that a wise move? has anyone seen Aaron's knees after every game? They're red raw !! -- or was it Flanno punishing Meady for always being the last player to arrive each Saturday? He looked a bit out of sorts early on, particularly a certain free kick taken by the opposition, but once he realised he could use his hands to catch the ball, he was more than capable. Okay, yes at one point he got the ruling of a goal kick and throw-in mixed up but he did make a great save several meters wide of the goalmouth. He stopped that goal kick from happening for sure !

Meady as Keeper / Meady makes a desperate dive to save his team from having to take a goal kick.

RAMBO, when not making theatrical action dives to milk free kicks, practices the crane kick / MEADY clears it.

SEVEN'S YELLOW SINS

Luca & Steve George were in the thick of it all game and never let up. Unfortunately their dominance brought them to the attention of Gosford's niggling No.7 (aka the elbow man) who did enough to frustrate both our boys into receiving yellow card infringements. Both were also close to being sent off by a ref who had little tolerance for dissent. Even Jason on the sideline got told he could be on his way to the carpark when questioning the fairness of why Gosford's player wasn't cautioned as well.

LUCA's woes continue when warned where the sideline is located.

JASON (on the sideline) is warned of the carpark / STEVE G gets a yellow.

BRAD'S DOUBLE YELLOW

The worst was to come in the second half when Brad was cautioned for a handball. The ref declared it was deliberate. Someone mouthed off. The ref mistook it for Brad and sent him off with a second yellow. Hopefully the appeal goes our way and we see Brad on the playing field next weekend.

BRAD gets two straight yellows

FRAMEY questions why the dog wasn't ruled offside.

Even FLANNO's theatrics didn't go our way !!

Gosford's first goal.

BEN'S EQUALISER

There were several chances throughout in front of the opposition goal that hinted Wyoming were destined to get back into this game. Gosford's keeper for one loved to charge out of the box and was dispossessed a couple of times - Andy and Chris both had their chances here - but it would be a great pass by Steve George that saw Ben Wilkinson weave his magic again. Echoing his goal against Woy Woy last weekend, Benny took a shot from almost the same angle. The ball fired like a rocket over the keeper's extended arms and into the net.

BEN at it again !

CHRIS beats the keeper but neither he, BEN nor ANDY can get the spot at an open goal.

ANDY and FRAMEY combine for a corner ... it beats the keeper a defender at the goal post clears it.

NO FIRST HALF SUBSTITUTIONS !

I'm not sure why no substitutions were made during the first half but Aaron, Dave, Dean and Jason were stuck on the bench until the second half. Rotations would've surely simmered some of the frustrated players out there. Thankfully, Paul took on the role of subs coach in the second half. Let's please get this organised before kick off next time boys !!

Gosford's winning goal.

THE BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN BOOT & THE RETURN OF 2351

Framey informed the team that we may get Jono back one game earlier than expected. Jono has been working at a mining camp the past two weeks and currently goes under the identification tag of "2351". The way we're going at the moment, I think we'll need him to score that many goals when he returns. Framey started up front this weekend with the hopes of breaking out in front of the 'golden boot' title race. Alas, the ball rarely stopped completely for Framey to score. He hates that on-the-fly shit!

WOMEN'S ALL-AGES 5

The girls had to come from behind twice to secure a 2-2 equaliser at the death against second placed Gosford. Their unbeaten run now extends to five (oh boys, do you remember those days?) and they remain on top of the table. Elise made a welcomed return to the field this week after overcoming an achilles gripe but sadly Sharon has injured her foot again. Hoping you'll be back out there soon.

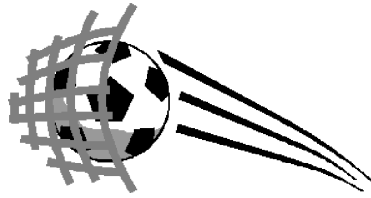

NATE & STEVIE G'S ADVENTURES FROM THE UK

Having survived Amsterdam together, Nate and Stevie G send their regards from the UK as they search for summer contracts ...

Thanks to Nate & Tony for the photos

LADDER

Woy Woy continue the charge in front. Karingong drop to third place by only picking up one point instead of an expected three against Terrigal. Due to this, Gosford are now outright second. Umina failed to break into the top four with a loss to Avoca who have now leapfrogged them into fifth. Wyoming again hold onto 4th spot by one point. Terrigal picked up their first point of the season yet remain last on goal differential.

THIS WEEKEND'S FIXTURES

And so the second half of the season begins ... Let's hope the competition points drought ends this weekend with a win against Terrigal. Woy Woy take on the only team to have beaten them this season thus far, Kariong.

TEAM PHOTO THIS SATURDAY

It would seem the guy pictured below misses out this weekend (perhaps deliberately after copping midget jokes from last year's photo) but for everyone else a reminder that the team photo is taking place at Alan Davidson Oval at 1330hrs.

Cya Saturday !!
