GAME #13

(ROUND 14)

	HOME		AWAY		GROUND	DATE	TIME
1	 WYOMING	vs	 EAST GOSFORD	5	Alan Davidson Oval 2 (Wyoming)	August 1	12:00

Crowned League Champions last weekend, the Wyoming Tigers looked far from it today as they were taken to the cleaners by an enthused East Gosford team desperate to qualify for the finals. Four goals in the first half not only demonstrated that the Rams meant business but it also gave the Tigers a wake up call, an early warning that complacency will not get them very far in the upcoming finals. The scoreline was not the only obstacle for the Tigers as an early send-off had them reduced to 10 men for a majority of the game. A penalty in the second half - that saw the Rams also reduced to 10 - was of small comfort as the damage had been done. An ugly encounter full of squabbles and baiting dished out from both sides. Whether it be the curse of Game No. 13 or the loss we needed to have, let's hope it's a minor blimp as the finals approach.

AN EARLY BRACE

The less said about that first half the better. In a nutshell, the Rams scored four goals, two in the first five minutes. A free kick started it off, it bounced off the left upright and into the opposite corner of the net. It was all downhill from there.

EAST GOSFORD's first goal.

WAITING IN THE WINGS

Andy and Tony watched from the bench for those first agonising 20 minutes as their team conceded three goals and were reduced to ten men. Could they spark the attack and create an unthinkable comeback. No, but they came very close to getting one back early on when Andy won a free kick and sent it Tony's way. Tony leaped up perfectly, heading it on target but unfortunately it was blocked by the keeper and in a double blow, ruled offside.

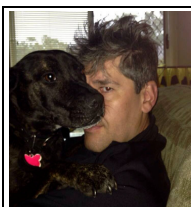

TONY tries to get the Tigers on the board.

Tony and Andy were particularly busy in the second half creating attacking options. Tony sparked many chances by sending Andy up the line - and sideline unfortunately a few times, damn the smaller field that is Alan Davidson Oval 2 !! One though connected beautifully only for Andy's shot to hit the woodwork and bounce back into play.

ANDY's shot in the top left corner is blocked by keeper onto the crossbar.

THE LUCA & ZIGGY PITCH REPORT

SPECIAL GUEST REPORTER: NIGEL MEAD

When asked if Field 2 was looking any better after a week without rain, MEADY responded, "A little."

(FRIDAY, 31ST JULY 2015)

The final play, ANDY beats his opponents only for the ball to bounce off the post and into the keeper's arms.

CAUGHT IN THE NET

Poor Aaron had copped jibes last Sunday that he'd been injured whilst backing up for 3rd Grade. Spectator Brad told his teammates that our trusty keeper had hurt his back due to having to reach down and collect the ball from the net on four occasions. Sadly, Aaron was forced to do the same numerous times today though Meady took care of the retrieval on the fifth time, mostly due to that final goal coming from his accidental tap in. Yes Meady gave his former club their final goal. Had he jumped ship? He was intending to sit out today to rest his knee but a shortage of numbers saw him take the bench at kick-off. Yes, his stellar defensive record - other than that own goal - remains almost intact as he wasn't on the field when the first three goals were scored. It might've been worse too if not for some great saves made by Aaron.

Panic stations as the ball rolls across an open goal ... STEVIE G ends the chaos.

NOT A VINTAGE RED

Looking back poor Luca wished he would've just stayed in Bowral. There for a work function, he headed back to the Coast this morning on only three and a half hours sleep so he could pull on the boots for his beloved team and club. After being offended by an opposition player who verbally threatened to break his legs, LUCA responded by raising his middle finger, and got a straight red ... WTF??

NO. 13'S GREATEST HITS

East Gosford's No. 13 defied the odds and somehow managed to stay on the field despite countless fouls and disruptive behaviour. Pulled aside by the referee on at least two occasions he escaped with a mere yellow card.

THE CLAWS COME OUT

Paul kept the defenders busy chasing him around throughout the game and particularly frustrating East Gosford's No. 16 enough to push him away from the ball just as Paul was entering the 18-yard box. The referee pointed to the spot and gave No. 16's his marching orders with his second yellow. His first was in the first half when he got into a scuffle and unleashed a nasty set of talons on Flanno. Lady Lavendar's woes continued with a torn shirt whilst Julia was forced to open up a new box of Disney Princess band-aids on the Captain. Unfortunately there are no photos of Paul's penalty due to all the attention being on the sideline where No. 16 refused to leave the grounds. It felt like an age before the penalty was taken and regardless of the distraction and protests, Paul demonstrated perfect composure yet again by finding the net. The keeper stood still claiming he hadn't heard the ref's whistle. Pfft!!

Not content with waiting till full time, East Gosford's No. 16 wants to swap shirts with FLANNO now.

FLANNO patched up after his battle with The Wolverine (proudly sponsored by Disney Princess band-aids)

PAUL gets tossed aside prompting No. 16 to be sent off ... SHARON attempts to send him further.

DAVE almost gets off the nudie run list and he comes close to putting away a cross from PAUL.

LADY LAVENDER'S REVENGE

After some post-game dirt infringement to his jersey last weekend, Stevie G was justly punished by Lady Lavender by being disqualified from her points tally that week. Harsh but fair. But had she stopped there? Not a chance! Stevie needed to be reminded she was not to be messed with. As he was retrieved his shirt from the team bag he knew something was amiss, something was attached inside. Was it a ransom note demanding he behave or face the consequences? Was it C4? He cautiously turned it inside out to investigate ...

WYOMING WAA5s

A quick shout out to the girls of the Women All Age 5s team (featuring 35DS wives Alison, Ngari and Sharon) who weathered the storm of playing six games in the past fifteen days and wrapped up their season last Sunday. An amazing effort.

Luca's bad influence spreads ??

WEEK 14 WRAP-UP

Umina wrapped up 2nd spot with a huge win over Kariong, ending not only the Cougars' winning streak of four games but also their finals chances. East Gosford's big victory sees them not only guaranteed a finals spot but they jumped to 3rd spot due to Gosford being held to a scoreless draw against Kincumber.

WEEK 15 PREVIEW

The final round sees the top four teams split into games against opponents who have not qualified. An opportunity for some fine tuning for the finalists and a chance for the lower-placed teams to end the season on a high. With the semi finals set, the only movements on the ladder could be 3rd & 4th and /or 6th & 7th. Whichever way, it has no bearing on next weekend. Of interest, due to a forfeit by the Sharks in Rd 2, Wyoming and Avoca meet for the first time.
