GAME #6

Vs

Gavenlock Oval, Narara

WINTER IS COMING

The winter clothing was given a good dust off as the cold wind and rain had arrived in time for the top of the table clash: the local derby between Gosford (1st place and undefeated) and Wyoming (3rd place). Out of action were Mick McGarvey (still recovering from his hamstring injury last weekend), Snorky (A-grade commitments) and Aaron Quill (on a road trip to Brisbane for the weekend with the missus). Everyone else was available though Luca would be late; Bill would turn up unannounced - and late. Surviving injury scares: "the athlete" Flano had recovered from his hurt feelings last weekend and was ready to start whilst Dale too was back despite still suffering from a bruised bum (photos withdrawn).

THE BURST BUBBLE

Well what can we say. After four straight wins, the bubble burst today. We were outclassed, particularly in the fitness and energy areas. The chances for us up front were few and far between, mostly being long shots that their keeper wasn't going to lose sleep over.

(⤴) GOSFORD's first real chance is thwarted by the crossbar.

THE BOUGH BREAKS

Stevie G managed to contain the first few shots and had the help of the crossbar for another. Unfortunately a futile appeal for an offside and a lack of speed led to Gosford collecting their first goal. Their second came after Meady failed to find any support on a run up the middle and our backline weren't fast enough to deal with the quick counter attack. Adding to Wyoming's woes, poor Mark Fitzpatrick, in only his second game, retired early due to a quads injury. Hoping you recover quickly mate.

THE HAND OF GOD-SFORD

Gosford's third and fourth had a helping hand ... literally! Their third had the aid of an elbow from the Gosford striker. Further handballs had the ropable Meady calling the referee blind. The man in black's vision may have been questionable but his hearing was not and Meady was promptly shown a yellow. The fourth appeared to have the aid of a hand as well as the player gained control of the ball, pushed through the middle and sent in up to the forwards.

(⤴) GOSFORD gets away with it but MEADY's mouth does not.

SHREDDING THEIR CLEAN SHEET

A consolation goal came late in the second half. Luca had been sandwiched by two Gosford players and awarded a free kick at the halfway line. Brad took the kick. The ball dipped beautifully into the gap between the backline and the keeper. Andrew Newnham arrived amid the chaos to coolly chip the keeper and ruin their clean sheet.

(^) NEWNHAM almost nabs his second from an ANDY K cross.

(^) GREGG's shot sails just wide

(^) CHRIS gets a head to ANDY K's corner ... a mad scramble ensues.

THE LAST FEW MINUTES

Luca promptly retrieved the ball from the net for a quick kick off but the hopes of a miraculous comeback were moot. Luca and Chris did threaten up the middle, Andy K did manage some crisp crosses and Gregg came very close with a shot from long range. It just wasn't our day and Gosford have shown they are the team to beat in this competition. No surprises there though, they have three teams in the 35s competition. The other two are both in the ES competition currently placed 1st and 2nd - talk about trophy hunters. Nevertheless, that's the cards we've been dealt. Hopefully we fare better next time.
